

ETISALAT LANKA (PRIVATE) LIMITED

Photo caption
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Etisalat's 'Manudam Sapiri Nobindunu Sabadiyawa' reaches Kalutara flood victims

'Manudam Sapiri Nobindunu Sabadiyawa' convoy, containing the essential items collected from the staff and customers of Etisalat Lanka last week reached the flood affected areas in Kalutara.

The aide was distributed among the affected family under the watchful guidance of the Chief Incumbent of (name of the temple)

"We greatly appreciate the contributions received from our customers and staff for this initiative. Apart from the essentials that were donated today, on the request of the TRCSL we offered 75 minute free talk time daily to our subscribers who were in the affected areas to enable them to connect with relief services," Director Marketing Etisalat Sri Lanka Yarthav Mathiaparanam noted.

During their visits to the affected area the pioneer mobile service provider identified schools in the outskirts of the cities and plans to rebuild as the phase two of Manudam Sapiri Nobindunu Sabadiyawa project.

Pictured are some moments from the initiative.